ORDER:

The Government of India has launched the Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS) in the year 2009 to contribute to the improvement in well being of children in difficult circumstances, as well as to the reduction of vulnerabilities to situations and action that lead to abuse, neglect exploitation, abandonment and separation of children from parents with focus on children in need of care and protection and children in conflict and contact with the law. In the reference 1st read above, the Joint Secretary, Ministry of Women & Child Development, Government of India, New Delhi has informed that this Centrally Sponsored Scheme is aimed at providing a protective environment for all children in order to enable them to develop into responsible individuals. The interventions include, inter-alia, financial support for setting up and/or maintenance of Homes for children in need of care and protection and those in conflict with law, setting up of child protection structure viz., State Project Support Unit (SPSU), State Child Protection Society (SCPS), State Adoption Resource Agency (SARA) at the State and District Child Protection Societies (DPCS's), Specialized Adoption Agencies (SAAs) in all the Districts, capacity building, advocacy etc., for implementation of the Integrated Child Protection Scheme. The Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS) (Centrally Sponsored Scheme) is being implemented in the State since 2010-2011 with funding from the Government of India shared in ratio of 75:25.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Government has issued orders establishing society viz., "A.P. Society for Protection and Empowerment of Women and Children" under the A.P. Society Act for Protection; socio-cultural, political and economic empowerment of women and children; and to promote-gender equity, access to quality service and opportunities for building an equitable society through convergence and partnership.

3. In the reference 4th read above, instructions were issued regarding recruitment of staff in the State Project Support Unit (SPSU), State Child Protection Society (SCPS), State Adoption Resource Agency (SARA) at the State level and District Child Protection Societies (DPCS's), Specialized Adoption Agencies (SAAs) at the Districts level,
